Proud and Supported: Definitions and Beyond

Part 12: Trying new things
Words to Know in Part 12
Presentation

The decisions you make about how you look.

Pronouns

Words like he or she. We use pronouns to talk about people without using names.
Trying new things

You can always try new things.

You could try presenting in a different way.

You could try using a different name.

You could try using different pronouns.

You could try going on dates with new people.
It’s okay to try new things.

It’s okay if it doesn’t go well.

It’s okay if you decide you didn’t like it.

The important thing is that you tried.

The important thing is that you learned something from it.
This project was supported, in part by grant number C00018GG, from the U.S. Administration for Community Living, the Department of Health and Human Services, Washington, D.C. 20201 through the New York State Developmental Disabilities Planning Council (NYS DDPC). Grantees undertaking projects with government sponsorship are encouraged to express freely their findings and conclusions. Points of view or opinions do not, therefore, necessarily represent official ACL policy or the opinions, interpretation or policy of the NYS DDPC.